For more information visit www.gautrain.co.za. More information on ground transportation is available on <http://www.airports.co.za/airports/or-tambo-international/transport> . The final transport option would be to utilise an Uber.

Visa Information:

Travelers from some countries are required to obtain a visa to visit South Africa. Please consult the Department of Home Affairs – <http://www.dha.gov.za/index.php/immigration-services/exempt-countries> to learn whether you will require a visa. If you are required to apply for a visa, you will need a Visitors visa for entry, and your application for a South African visa must be submitted and approved prior to boarding the airplane. Please note: We recommend you complete your visa requirements as early as possible to avoid any potential conflicts. If your visa application requires a formal invitation letter with specific details, please contact Mr Ismail Badrudin – ismailb@uj.ac.za

Hotel Reservations:

Participants are responsible for making their own reservations with the hotel and paying the costs of their stay. The online booking link is available until the 09th September 2019. Please make your reservation within this time period and book utilising the online booking link to receive the rates listed above.

The online booking link is as follows: G-SKBN

Process to book accommodation

- Click on the link provided
- Select the applicable dates
- Once selected, a Corporate/Group code will automatically appear
- Click on check rates
- The room with the agreed upon rate will appear, select room and finalise your booking.

Please note that the rate provided is available from the 08th - 11th October 2019 (4 nights, check – out on the 12th October 2019). Should you wish to arrive earlier or to extend your stay, your booking will be made based on room availability and the room rate/s applicable for the additional days.

Please Note: Hyatt Regency, Johannesburg is the primary lodging option in the area. If you do not make your reservation by 09th September 2019 and the hotel has no availability, you will need to book your accommodation at other hotels in the area which would require you to arrange transport to and from the conference venue. We recommend you book your accommodation at the Hyatt Regency, Johannesburg which is available until the 09th September 2019.

All accommodation bookings from the 10th September 2019 onwards can be finalized by contacting the Hyatt Regency, Rosebank directly or by accessing the general accommodation booking link found on the hotel website. Bookings will be finalized based on room availability and best room rate for the day.

N.B. - Please be advised that the rates are based on a minimum of 10 paying rooms per night for the four nights. Should the actual number of rooms reserved be less than 10 rooms per night, the system will automatically amend the accommodation rate to the best available rate of the day. Please encourage delegates to book their rooms as soon as possible to receive the agreed rate and to avoid disappointment.

IV. ACCOMMODATION VENUE – HYATT REGENCY, ROSEBANK

Safety Tips – At the Airport

- Make sure your bags and luggage have locks and name tags.
- Never leave your bags unattended.
- Do not allow strangers to interfere with your bags.
- When seeking directions, proceed to marked information counters only.
- Do not tell strangers where you stay or will be staying.
- Avoid displaying valuable items such as jewellery, cash and devices by locking them into your baggage.
- Limit the amount of cash you carry.
- Do not talk about the valuables you are carrying during telephone conversations where people can overhear you.
- Be especially vigilant when arriving on an evening flight
- Transport service – Make sure that the taxi (metre taxi, Uber, private, Hotel Airport Shuttle) you are taking is the correct one. Check the registration of the car and the identification of the driver. Most importantly, always do a quick check of the whole car before getting in.
