Thursday 3 December 2020
10:00 – 11:30 Meeting Link Meeting ID: 867 0642 2232 Passcode: 987466	Skills Session 4: Academic Journeys and Promotion Dr Marian Mahat, Senior Research Fellow, The University of Melbourne (21.00 AEDT) Academic Promotion is a significant intellectual and personal endeavour. A successful academic can be considered as one who continually grows as a researcher, educator and valued member of the academic community. There is no one right way to thrive in academia—in this workshop and presentation, Dr Mahat will demystify the academic promotion process and brings you on a journey to realise your potential through strategic career enhancement. Dr Marian Mahat has more than 20 years' experience in higher education, building on five qualifications obtained at renowned institutions in Singapore, the United Kingdom and Australia. Working across multiple fields of inquiry, utilising innovative quantitative and qualitative methodologies and interdisciplinary collaboration with other universities, industry and schools, her research spans co-designing curriculum and pedagogy, teacher-led inquiry and teachers' professional development across multiple educational and learning environment contexts to engender improvements in the learning and outcomes of students. She is highly passionate about building capacity and capability of academic staff at universities. She is series editor of the Surviving and Thriving in Academia and book editor of Achieving Academic Promotion and Women Thriving in Academia published by Emerald. This session requires pre-registration.
